Please attach a letter answering the following questions:

1. What project(s) will the Fellow be working on within your organization/group?
2. Has the host organization provided a detailed overview of the goals and expectations of the Island Fellows Program? How does your project(s) match these goals?
3. Who will be the Fellow's primary contact within your organization?
4. How will the primary contact person provide support and guidance for the Fellow?
5. How will the primary contact person ensure that others within the collaborating organization are aware of the Fellow's role in the project(s)?
6. Has the host organization been made aware of the approved and prohibited activities under the AmeriCorps grant?

Letters of support must be included with the Fellows Placement Application. Please complete your letters and return them to the Fellow Advisor from the host organization. Complete applications are due on Friday, March 14, 2008.
