Julia's Gallery for Young Artists at the Farnsworth Art Museum and the Island Institute present

BUILDING BRIDGES

This project connects the islands of Penobscot Bay to the mainland through art. Selected island students spent the summer of 2007 working with professional mentoring artists. Please join us for our joint opening exhibition at Julia's Gallery and Archipelago Fine Arts on December 15, 2007 from 5-8 p.m. or at participating island locations as the exhibition travels.
