THE OFFSHORE WIND HUB

The Offshore Wind Hub provides open access to documents related to offshore wind policy, technology, economics, and siting. You can search for documents by state, topic, or key words. The listings are currently up to date for all Atlantic Coast states from Maine to Maryland. Listings for other states and the federal government are not necessarily complete or up to date.

SUBMIT A RESOURCE

To continue to improve the usefulness of the Offshore Wind Hub web site, we are interested in learning about additional documents to include. If you know of a document that should be included among the listed documents, use this form.
