ISLAND ENERGY CONFERENCE

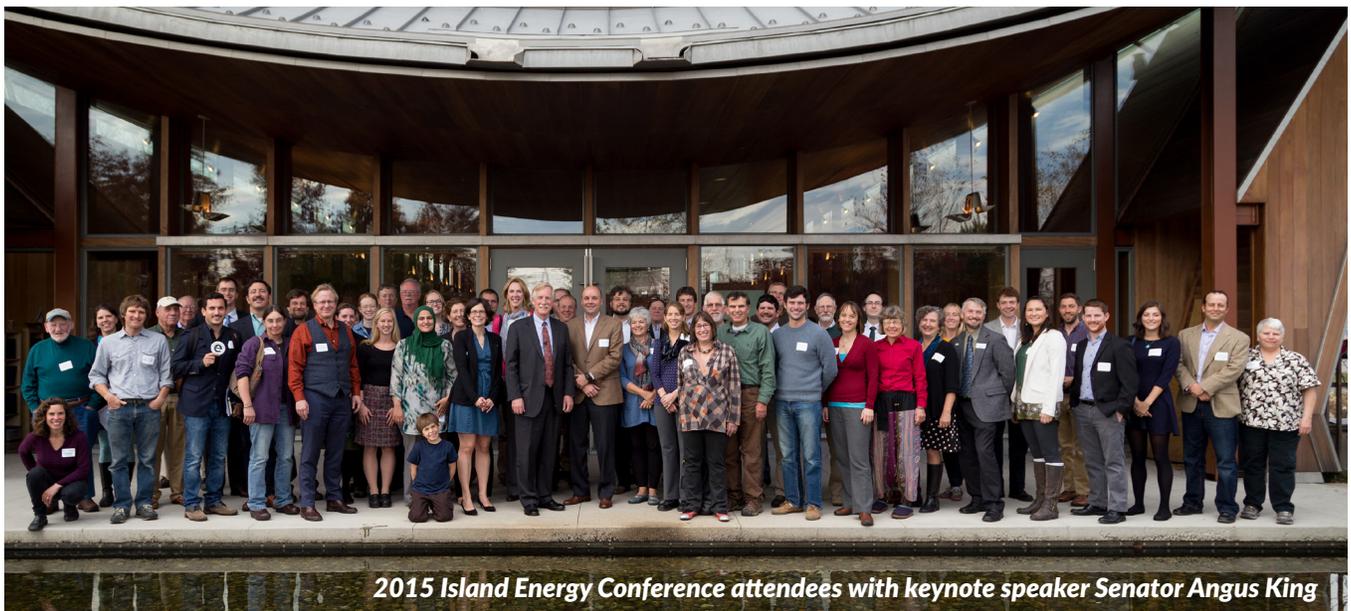

April 27 - 28, 2017
South Portland, ME

Monhegan Island, ME

The Island Energy Conference brings together local leaders and energy experts from throughout New England and beyond to discuss the unique energy challenges facing island communities and the innovative solutions that they are implementing. Hosted by the Island Institute, the event has grown into the region's premiere forum on energy solutions for remote communities. This year's conference is shaping up to be a great event, mixing networking opportunities, informational panels, keynote addresses, and an exhibition space for vendors.

Be involved... Become a sponsor!

Support this progressive conference and network with a highly engaged and informed audience. The majority of conference attendees will be energy innovators, power system operators, island residents, and industry enthusiasts. This is the perfect opportunity to connect with islanders who are actively implementing new technologies and people seeking new solutions to common energy challenges.
