An Energetic History of Maritime Maine

Lincoln Paine

Island Institute Summer Lecture Series
Rockland

31 July 2019
MARITIME ENERGY

Fire

Human

Wind

Water
White Pine and the King’s Broad Arrow
The Town of Falmouth, Burnt, by Captain Moet, Oct. 18, 1775.
Burning Portland since 1775
LOCATION OF PRINCIPAL COAL-DELIVERY ROUTES FROM BITUMINOUS MINING REGIONS TO BASE-LOAD STEAM ELECTRIC PLANTS IN 1930.
Portland Pipeline map and South Portland terminal
Maine River Basins

Saint John
Penobscot
Kennebec
Androscoggin
Presumpscot
Saco
Eustis Hydro, Dead River

Denil fish ladder, Milford
Buoyancy Stabilized
Barge with catenary mooring lines

Ballast Stabilized
Spar buoy with catenary mooring, drag-embedded anchors

Mooring Line Stabilized
Tension leg platform with suction pile anchors